

a Mountain to call your own

Conferencing and Team Building @ Verlorenkloof

Do you have a workshop, team build or small conference? Why not bring your group/team to us? Keep it exciting and different by having your session outdoors, in your own croft or set up at the Lodge. We will look after all the arrangements and logistics and are flexible and accommodating to suit your organizations' needs. Leisure activities at Verlorenkloof can become a part of your event or our affiliation with local facilitator Gear On will ensure a great team building activities for your group and your company.
