4 - 7 February 2022

This year, the theme of the weekend is ABSOLUTELY ANYTHING GREEN AND GROWING!

Verlorenkloof has a landscape rich in biodiversity and will offer you ample opportunities to experience many different trees, flowers, and orchids in their various habitats, which are a joy to visit in any season.

PROGRAM

Friday 4 February:

18:30 - 20:30 - Gather at the Lodge for an informal introductory talk about the Verlorenkloof landscape and archaeology by resident enthusiast and owner of Verlorenkloof, Eric Johnson. Light snacks & drinks will be served. R150.00 per person.

Saturday 5 February

07:00 - 11:00 - Meet at the Rock Pool below Croft 2 and let Verlorenkloof's mysteries unfold. Led by renowned botanist Frans Krige, the walk will be slow and gradual and can be enjoyed by all ages. Remember to bring along a hat, sunscreen, and water. After the morning walk, you can enjoy lunch at your croft or at our Foodspace restaurant. An excellent option here is to pre-order one of our Foodspace Picnic Boxes, which will be ready and waiting for you at Reception. The picnic boxes are available at R365 for 2 people.

In the afternoon, Frans, our orchid specialist, will assess the weather and ascertain the interest in seeing the beautiful Gladiolus Cataractarum growing in the Robin's Kloof cliffs, a treasure only flowering at this time of the year. A definite must see!

Saturday evening - own braai/dinner at your fully equipped croft or you could order dinner from the Croft Food menu at FOODSPACE.
